WHEN: WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 11TH, 2010, 6:00 PM

WHERE: PENN STATE ALTOONA CAMPUS
PERFORMING ARTS CENTER – DANCE STUDIO
(The students have had class with K.T. Huckabee here.)

Please join Jennifer Bryan and Cristin Burwell for a meeting about the Pre-Professional Ballet Program offered this year at ABC. There are many topics to discuss from concerns to future plans. We value your opinions and want to hear them all. We also want to share our visions and reassure you of our steadfast commitment towards this unique program!

Your attendance is not mandatory, but is highly advised. We understand that this is the same week as the CPYB program and that some might not be able to make it. Jennifer is willing to schedule another meeting if needed for those unable to attend, or type brief meeting minutes to cover topics discussed. It is nearly impossible to return everyone's phone calls and/or e-mails at this time, so we didn't want to wait any longer to have the meeting and quickly address concerns before the start of the fall program. Thank you for your patience and understanding.
